

Don't miss - Thursday 'Art of the Brain' Time Out London - June 29- July 6 2005

AROUND TOWN

AROUND TOWN EVENTS, ATTRACTIONS & KIDS

Events

Wednesday 29

FREE Have You Got a Rubber? Spitz Gallery, 109 Commercial Street, Old Spitalfields Market, E1. 020 7392 9032.  Liverpool St. Mon-Sat 12noon-5pm, Sun 11am-5pm. July 8
Photography exhibition organised in conjunction with the Jubilee Debt Campaign and part of Make Poverty History. The 'rubber' theme comes from the idea of erasing the debts of poorer nations and is depicted in Jessie Simmons' photographs of erasers.

Primrose Hill Summer Lectures 2005
St Mary's Church, Elsworth Road, NW3. Info/bookings 020 7722 3238/office@smph.org.uk.  Chalk Farm/Swiss Cottage. 7.30pm. £10, incl glass of wine.
Today: Law Lord Tom Bingham on 'Tolerance and Terrorism: When human rights go wrong'. Wed 6: Yasmin Alibhai-Brown on 'Who do we think we are?: Imagining the New Britain'.

Thursday 30

FREE BP Summer Big Screens
Canada Square Park, Canary Wharf, E14. www.canarywharf.com.  Canary Wharf. 7.15pm.
Opera for free - Puccini's 'La Bohème' will be broadcast on outdoor screens live from the Royal Opera House. Take a picnic or buy food and drink from the surrounding shops and bars. Ground mats will be provided.

FREE Dana Centre Events Wellcome Wolfson Building, 165 Queen's Gate, SW7. Bookings 020 7942 4040/ www.danacentre.org.uk.  Gloucester Road/South Kensington. Thur 6.30-9pm, Tue 7-8.30pm. Booking preferred. July 5
Today: 'Art of the brain'. Tue: 'Sex difference in the brain: fact or fantasy?' See Don't Miss, right feast Festival Riverside Studios, Crisp Road, W6. Box office 020 8237 1111.  Hammersmith. Various times and prices. July 9

Highlights include 'Paper World' - a clowning show; 'Double' - a comedy of the absurd; and 'W: Worker's Circus'. See Don't Miss, right

FREE Havana in Heddon Street
Off Regent St, W1. Info www.regentstreetonline.com.  Piccadilly Circus. Thursdays 6-9pm. June 30
See Don't Miss, right

FREE Have You Got a Rubber? Spitz Gallery, E1. See Wednesday 29

Revolution and Revelation: A Russian Art Sale Stamford Bridge Football Ground, Fulham Rd, SW6. Bookings 020 8542 2000.  Fulham Broadway. Thur 7.30-10.30pm, Sat Wed 6 10am-5pm. Thur £46, Sat Wed 6 free. July 6
Paintings from the 1950s onwards, sold in aid of Children in Crisis, a charity that supports street children in Russia. Prices are in the region of £200-£5,000.

Friday 1

feast Festival Riverside Studios, Crisp Rd, W6. See Thursday

FREE Futura @ dpmhi dpmhi Gallery, 2-3 Great Pulteney St, W1. 0871 218 0260.  Piccadilly Circus. Mon-Sat 10am-7pm, Sun 12noon-5pm. July 30
Exhibition of work by graffiti artist Futura, who designed record covers for The Clash and artists on Mo Max records, including DJ Shadow and James Lavelle's UNKLE collaboration. This show features original paintings and drawings that can be seen from viewing platforms on several levels.

FREE Have You Got a Rubber? See Wednesday 29

FREE Late at Tate Britain Millbank, SW1. 020 7887 8000.  Pimlico. 6-10pm.
This month's event is themed around leisure, so games such as bingo and giant board games on the lawn will be set to live experimental soundscapes. You can view Doc Rowe's collection of pop culture artefacts, watch a film screening, take a tour telling the history of the gallery's site, and visit the bar.

FREE Live Aid: Then and Now Getty Images Gallery, 46 Eastcastle Street, W1. 020 7291 5380.  Oxford Circus. Mon-Fri 10am-6.30pm (Thur until 7.30pm), Sat 12noon-6.30pm. July 16
Exhibition of photographs by Live Aid and Live8 official photographer Dave Hogan, featuring stars from both the original and current events.

Saturday 2

Architecture Tour: West End Outside Royal Academy of Arts, Piccadilly, W1. 020 7380 0412/www.openhouselondon.org.  Piccadilly Circus. 10.05am-1.15pm. £18.50, students £13. Booking essential.
Find out about some of London's most celebrated architects from the establishment buildings of Piccadilly, St James's and Whitehall. The tour takes in the newly master-planned Trafalgar Square, the 1980s Channel 4 headquarters, the revitalised Somerset House and the British Museum's Great Court. Organised by Open House.

feast Festival See Thursday

FREE Futura @ dpmhi See Friday

FREE Have You Got a Rubber? Spitz Gallery, 109 Commercial Street, Old Spitalfields Market, E1. See Wednesday 29

FREE International Co-operative Day Bernie Spain Gardens, Upper Ground, South Bank, SE1. Info 020 7401 2255.  Blackfriars/Southwark/Waterloo. 2-7pm.
A festival celebrating co-operative principles and activities. This year's focus is on Fair Trade. The afternoon programme includes African music from Kasai Masai, Latin jazz and funk by Manteca and crowd-pleasing pop by covers band Funky Lipstick. There will also be wandering street theatre and children's art workshops throughout the day, plus a lantern-lit procession and stalls selling crafts and refreshments.

FREE Live Aid Photography Exhibition Getty Images Gallery, W1. See Wednesday 29

FREE Pride Festival, Parade and Rally Parade: meet Park Lane, W1. Info www.prideinthepark.com.  Marble Arch. 12noon. Rally: Trafalgar Square, WC2. Charing Cross. 3-7pm. Cabaret: Leicester Square, WC2. Leicester Square. 3-7pm.
The annual gay pride parade passes down Piccadilly, Regent Street and Whitehall, finishing up at Victoria Embankment. Meanwhile at the rally in Trafalgar Square there will be films, music and a host of speakers, and a cabaret in Leicester Square.

Revolution and Revelation: A Russian Art Sale Stamford Bridge Football Ground, SW6. See Thursday

Salvo Fair Knebworth House, Knebworth, Hertfordshire. Info 020 8761 2316.  Stevenage rail then two-mile taxi ride. Access by car via Junction 7 of the A1(M) motorway. 11am-5pm. £6.50 incl adm to Knebworth Gardens. July 3
Rummage sale of architectural salvage and garden antiques. Anything could turn up among the miscellany, including sun dials, bird baths, radiators, ironwork, tiles, lighting and possibly a kitchen sink or two.

FREE Streatham Festival Launch Streatham Green, between Streatham High Rd and Mitcham Lane, SW16. Info 07973 711 173/www.streathamfestival.info.  Streatham rail. 11.30am-4pm.
Live music, comedy, drumming and gospel singing, plus stilt walking and face-painting.

FREE Tibet House Trust Exhibition Hoopers Gallery, 15 Clerkenwell Close, EC1. 020 7490 3908.  Farringdon. Mon-Fri 11am-5pm, Sat 11am-6pm. July 14
Exhibition of photographs of the life of the 14th Dalai Lama.

Don't miss...

From Thursday

feast Festival
Play with paints, clay and other materials and unleash your creative genius in the company of Colin Blakemore of the Medical Research Council, Dr Lizzie Burns, an artist inspired by science, and neuroscientist Mark Lythgoe in a workshop at Science Museum's Dana Centre. See listings

Thursday

FREE Art of the Brain
Play with paints, clay and other materials and unleash your creative genius in the company of Colin Blakemore of the Medical Research Council, Dr Lizzie Burns, an artist inspired by science, and neuroscientist Mark Lythgoe in a workshop at Science Museum's Dana Centre. See listings

FREE Havana in Heddon Street

The final evening of live Cuban jazz will feature ten-piece band Roberto Pla and DJ Lubi. Sit and play dominoes (pictured), sip on a mojito and imagine you're on holiday. See listings

From Friday Nelson's Fans

The new exhibition at the Fan Museum in Greenwich displays a selection of fans that were made to commemorate the British Admiral's victories and lend his battles a romantic, adventurous or heroic edge (pictured). There are also some 'French opposition' fans on display. See Museums

From Saturday

Shapes and Shapers: The Evolution of the Surfboard
Trace the development of surfboards, from the wooden boards used by ancient Hawaiian kings, to fibreglass-covered polyurethane foam incarnations in the the '60s, through to the innovative boards in use today in a new show at the Design Museum. See Museums

Monday

Genes Talking
A live lab installation at the Institute for Contemporary Arts. Visitors can watch, and chat to, volunteer scientists as they sequence DNA. The project is part of an ICA initiative exploring ways to meld art and science and is accompanied by a series of talks. See listings

From Wed 6

John Madejski Garden
The newly designed V&A courtyard garden opens to the public today. The garden was funded by businessman John Madejski and designed by landscape architect Kim Wilkie, whose aim was to create 'a new contemporary space for the capital'. See Museums

River Travel

Find the Tube hot and stuffy in this scorching weather? Take advantage of the new River Roamer ticket from Thames Clippers - The Riverline for hop-on, hop-off travel along the Thames or try the brand new speedy service connecting the London Eye and the Tower of London. For the office bound, a boat commute makes a glam alternative to the underground. See Attractions

Sunday 3

FREE Diocese of Southwark Centenary Celebration Southwark Cathedral, Cathedral St, SE1. 020 7367 6700. m London Bridge. 12.30-4.30pm.
A lively party featuring everything from circus acts and a jazz band to sword-fighting demonstrations by performers from Shakespeare's Globe. There's also food stalls from Borough Market and a Victorian merry-go-round. At 3pm there will be a service, after which 100 white doves will be released (4.30pm). The proceedings will be broadcast on giant outdoor screens.

feast Festival See Thursday

Film Screenwriting Seminars NPA Film Centre, Unit 1.07, Tea Building, 56 Shoreditch High St, E1. Bookings 01932 232 952.  Liverpool Street. Sun 10.30am-5pm. £50-£60; Mon 6.30-9.30pm. £20-£35. Booking essential. July 4
Today: 'Key Principles' - one-day course covering characters, scene structure, pitching, selling, copyright and contract issues. Monday: 'Creating Great Scenes' - mentoring workshop with Charles Harris.

FREE Futura @ dpmhi See Friday

FREE Have You Got a Rubber? See Wednesday 29

London Interiors Earl's Court 1, Warwick Rd, SW5. Tickets 0870 429 4626/info www.londoninteriorsvent.co.uk.  Earl's Court. 10am-6pm. £15, £10 adv.
Selling exhibition of the latest furniture, fabric and accessories for the home.

AROUND TOWN

Gunpowder, Treason and Plot at the Tower of London	51
Museums	52
Walks	52
Touch Me reviewed	53
Olympic city announced	54
Kids' events	55
Kids' theatre	56
Children's Art Day	56
Colouring book review	56